WELCOME TO MAESTEG SCHOOL

The school is situated in the Llynfi Valley, in a very pleasant rural setting, yet conveniently situated for access to the M4, Bridgend, Swansea and Cardiff. The school's catchment area serves the town of Maesteg and surrounding villages in the Llynfi Valley. The school enjoys close links with its main partner primary schools and benefits from a supportive close knit community. We are co-educational, with a pupil age range of 11-18 years. The present roll is 1050 pupils, including approximately 150 in the Sixth Form. The pupil population has a balance of boys and girls and a truly comprehensive intake. A total of 26.5 % of pupils are entitled to free school meals. This is above the national average of 17.4% for secondary school in Wales. Around 55% of the population live in the most deprived areas in Wales. Fundamental to the way we work here is in removing barriers to learning. The school currently has 67 teaching staff and a further 32 support staff that include administrators, technicians and learning support. The school is cohesive, safe and highly inclusive. We always look to recruit staff who have high expectations of all learners with a total commitment to the education and welfare of young people and who are able to provide an outstanding level of personal support. We believe outstanding teachers and outstanding support staff really do make the transformational difference in a child's life.

The school has a 25 period/hour teaching week and setting throughout the curriculum. The curriculum covers the requirements of the National Curriculum and there is a clear emphasis on teaching and learning in a supportive environment. In Key stage 4, the school offers a good range of general and vocational courses, including successful provision for reducing the number of pupils leaving school with no qualifications and meeting the needs of our more able and talented pupils. The school is a member of the Bridgend Learning Network for 14-19 Pathways.

Maesteg School is committed to the concept of skills development. We have developed a curriculum in Year 7 that is focused on developing skills through cross-curricular challenges and this has gathered a lot of interest. We are committed to the vision of ensuring that this work becomes integral to the work of all faculties and underpins our approach to learning at Maesteg. With a greater understanding of the learning process and what it means to be a powerful learner, we are seeing increased self-efficacy in our pupils which will result in them maximising their potential.

The school is committed to helping everyone who works here to do their best possible work in raising standards. Colleagues are consulted on all major policy decisions and are encouraged to raise openly any matters concerned with the school's effective operations. Pupils also make a positive and significant contribution, which influences all aspects of school life.

In terms of curriculum, the school is organised into Faculties, with Directors of Learning responsible for their leadership and management. The pupil guidance system is managed by Heads of House. Most teaching staff are also Form Tutors. The work of the school is monitored and evaluated by the Governors, the Headteacher, Senior Managers, Directors of Learning and Heads of House.

The review process is used to inform development planning and to maintain the school's progress. Staff provide a range of enrichment programmes and pupils participate in a wide range of community activities.

The school has a clear focus on the development of Literacy, Numeracy and ICT and has committed a substantial part of its budget to all these areas. It is expected that staff will be ICT literate and innovative with ICT in their lessons.

We want all our pupils to have the opportunity to maximise their potential. Each pupil is of equal value and has equal access to the curriculum and all 'benefits, facilities or services' offered by the school. At Maesteg School we pride ourselves on knowing and supporting every pupil. We attach great importance to educating about equal opportunities. The school curriculum covers issues of equality and challenges prejudice and stereotyping in schools and in the wider community. We foster a culture where diversity is valued and equality of opportunity is a reality.

Maesteg celebrates its 'Welshness' and identity in many ways. We are proud of our language and heritage and this commitment is to be seen in much of our work. Pupils are exposed to the Welsh language and many events are held to celebrate our history and tradition. All subjects are taught through the medium of English, apart from the subject of Welsh. All subjects use basic greetings and instructions in Welsh to develop pupils' competency. All pupils study Welsh in KS3 and KS4 unless an exemption has been implemented. English is the day to day language of communication in the school. However, staff and pupils are encouraged to use Welsh as much as possible.

Partnership is a common thread running through the school, based on mutual respect and the sharing of good practice. We are very fortunate to serve a close knit community. The school prides itself in achieving a number of externally accredited quality marks including 'Investors in Families', 'ICT Mark', 'Careers Wales Mark', 'Active Marc Cymru' and International School . The school has a strong commitment to being community focused.

This is a great opportunity to be part of a school with a moral purpose of raising self-esteem. There is a real sense of excitement and confidence in what we can achieve together.

The school has recently been awarded 'Teaching Hub' status within the Central South Consortium as part of the drive to develop school to school support. Our aim is to develop the teaching hub into a teaching school.

As part of our professional development leadership programme, there are opportunities for aspiring middle leaders to join the Extended Leadership Team (ESLT) for a year (no remuneration). All senior staff are coaches for ESLT.
