

Intro to A Level Drama Tasks

Task 1- Practical

If there was a play written about what is going on in the world right now, what would the title be?

Write a one-page monologue from your perspective on how the last 10 weeks of 'lockdown have affected you.

You can then record a dramatic reading of your monologue (extra points for costume and props)

Task 2- Theory

National Theatre have currently opened up its online collection of videoed plays to schools, free of charge, for plays to be accessed remotely.

Please email Dr Duddridge (DDuddridge@maestegcs.bridgend.sch.uk) for log in details.

We want you to watch their production of Medea and complete a live theatre review using the below structure. Enjoy 😊

Example Live Theatre Review paragraph structure:

Paragraph One:

On _____ we watched the production of _____
_____. It was performed by _____ _____ in the _____
_____.

The production was based on _____ written by
_____. This style of performance was _____
_____.

Paragraph Two:

My personal opinion of the production was _____ _____ because _____
_____.

Paragraph Three and Four:

One key moment that stood out to me as an audience member was
_____.

This was effective because _____
_____ and made the audience _____
_____.

Another successful moment was _____
_____.

This was effective because _____
_____.

One thing I think could be improved would be _____
_____.

Paragraph Five= Conclusion