Dear parent/carer/guardian

Proposed changes to the council's home-to-school/college transport provision

The council is currently undertaking a public consultation on proposals to change the council's Home-to-School/College Transport Policy and we therefore welcome your views.

Details of the proposals, the consultation paper and details of the consultation events, including how to book a place, can be found on the council's website. You are invited to complete a survey on the proposals by following the link below:
